REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art fails to teach: Regarding Claim(s) 1, an apparatus for simultaneously attaching a plurality of articles to a foldable strip shaped merchandiser, comprising: a strip shaped element having an undulating cross sectional configuration comprising a series of folds, the strip comprising intermediate segments located between sequential folds in the strip shaped element, the intermediate segments comprising connection means located thereon; and a detachable handle contacting the series of folds at one or more points of contact; Regarding Claim(s) 15, a process for attaching a plurality of display articles to an undulating strip shaped merchandiser, the process comprising the steps of: providing an apparatus comprising a handle and an undulating strip member secured to one another, the strip comprising a plurality of releasable connection means located along the length of the strip; providing a plurality of display articles, each article comprising at least one releasable engagement means; contacting the apparatus strip to the plurality of display articles, the strip's connection means engaging the display articles' engagement means and releasably securing the display articles to the strip; and separating the handle from the strip in combination with the other elements of the claimed invention.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
